Chapter 11

Case No. 08-13555 (SCC)

Adv. Proc. No. _____

ADVERSARY COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (“LBHI”), the Plan Administrator under the Modified Third Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and Its Affiliated Debtors (the “Plan”), for its Complaint against Defendant Mortgage Direct, Inc. (“Mortgage Direct”) and BBMC Mortgage, as successor to Mortgage Direct, Inc. (“BBMC”), and Synergy One Lending, Inc., as successor to BBMC Mortgage (“Synergy” and together with Defendant Mortgage Direct and Defendant BBMC, “Defendants”) alleges upon knowledge as to itself and its own conduct, and upon information and belief as to all other matters, as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. LBHI seeks to enforce its right to contractual indemnification for liabilities, losses, damages, claims, judgments and any other costs, fees and expenses LBHI incurred as a result of Defendant Mortgage Direct’s submission of defective mortgage loans in breach of Defendant Mortgage Direct’s representations, warranties, obligations, and/or covenants and/or for which LBHI incurred liability due to Defendant Mortgage Direct’s acts, failures to act and/or omissions (the “Defective Loans”).

2. In reliance on Defendant Mortgage Direct’s promises, covenants, and representations and warranties, LBHI securitized certain loans. In connection with the securitizations, which were marketed and sold to third-party investors, LBHI made certain representations and warranties regarding the quality and characteristics of certain of the loans that were coextensive with those made by Defendant Mortgage Direct. LBHI retained the right to seek indemnification from Defendant Mortgage Direct in the event it became liable for certain indemnification events. After the trustees for hundreds of trusts (the “RMBS Trustees”) allegedly discovered that the mortgage loans breached certain of those representations and warranties, the RMBS Trustees filed claims in LBHI’s bankruptcy case for losses suffered on certain loans. On March 15, 2018, this Court entered the Order Estimating Allowed Claim Pursuant to RMBS Settlement (ECF No. 57785) (the “RMBS Order”) resolving the majority of the claims. LBHI also settled several other RMBS Trustee claims as permitted by the Plan.¹

3. By this action, LBHI seeks to recover money damages from Defendants for the indemnification claims.

PARTIES

4. On September 15, 2008, Plaintiff LBHI commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. LBHI is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

5. Defendant Mortgage Direct is an entity that, at all times relevant, is organized in and does business within the United States.

6. Defendant BBMC is an entity that, at all times relevant, is organized in and does business within the United States.

7. Defendant Synergy is an entity that, at all times relevant, is organized in and does business within the United States.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This adversary proceeding is commenced pursuant to Rules 7001 and 7003 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

9. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction to consider and determine this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and as the matter has a close nexus with the Plan, which was confirmed by Order of the Bankruptcy Court, dated December 6, 2011 (the “Confirmation”).

¹ See RMBS Trust Settlement Agreement, entered into as of June 25, 2018, between LBHI and Wilmington Trust National Association; Allowed Proof of Claim numbers: 720000, 720001, 720002, 720003, 720004, 720005, 720006, 720007, 720008, 720009, 720010, 720011, 720012, 720013, 720014, 720015, 720016, 720017, 22773.04, 24792, 24810, 720020, 720025, 720021, 720024, 720022, 720023, 720018, 720019.

Order”), and became effective on March 6, 2012. The Court has retained post-confirmation jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to section 14.1 of the Plan and paragraph 77 of the Confirmation Order.

10. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a), 1391, 1408, and 1409 because the claims arise out of pre-petition contracts and are asserted as part of the administration of the estate as set forth in the Plan, and because a substantial part of the acts or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred within the district, including the underlying agreements and loan transactions, and because the loss was suffered within the district.

11. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants under Rule 7004(f) of the Bankruptcy Rules. In addition, this Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants are organized in and do business within the United States, and because the transactions giving rise to this controversy occurred in the United States.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

12. Prior to commencement of these case, LBHI engaged in the purchase and sale of mortgage loans directly or through affiliates, including Lehman Brothers Bank, FSB (“LBB”), then securitized the loans, which were then marketed and sold to third-party investors.

13. At all relevant times, Defendant Mortgage Direct engaged in mortgage origination, as well as the submission of mortgage loans on the secondary market to entities such as LBB and LBHI.

A. The Governing Agreements

14. This dispute arises out of Defendant Mortgage Direct’s submission of residential mortgage loans to LBHI’s assignor, LBB, under one or more Broker Agreements with LBB (each a “Broker Agreement”).²

15. The dates of the relevant Broker Agreements are listed in Exhibit A hereto.

16. The Broker Agreements set forth the duties and obligations of the parties with respect to the submission of mortgage loans.

17. Pursuant to the Broker Agreements, Defendant Mortgage Direct submitted Defective Loans to LBB that resulted in LBHI being exposed to and incurring liability, as described further below.

18. The Broker Agreement provides that LBB, as the “Lender, in its sole discretion, may assign this Agreement from time to time.” See e.g., Broker Agreement § 19.

19. In conjunction with the sale by LBB to LBHI of the Defective Loans, LBB assigned to LBHI all of its rights and remedies under the Agreements pertaining to the loans.

B. Defendant Mortgage Direct’s Representations Under the Broker Agreements

20. With respect to each of the loans submitted under the Broker Agreements, Defendant Mortgage Direct made a number of representations, warranties, and covenants concerning the quality, characteristics, and underwriting of the mortgage loans; the property securing the mortgage loans; and the borrowers of the mortgage loans.

21. Specific examples of Defendant Mortgage Direct’s representations, warranties and covenants include, but are not limited to, the following:

Broker has made diligent inquiry into all facts and circumstances in making the loan, including all material representations and warranties of the borrower, and to Broker’s knowledge, none of the statements, information, or documentation included in the loan application, underwriting and closing packages contain any false or misleading statements or omit material facts necessary to make such statements accurate and not misleading. After review of the entire loan application package and closing documents . . . Broker has no knowledge of nor any reason to know of any fraudulent information or documentation present in the loan application package, closing documents or in the origination process used to generate the loan application package or closing documents. Broker Agreement § 8(g).

Broker has no knowledge nor any reason to know of any circumstance or condition which might indicate that the appraisal is incomplete or inaccurate or that the value of the Property might not be at least the amount reported therein, or any circumstances or conditions with respect to the Property, the borrower or the borrower's credit that could reasonably be expected to cause private institutional investors to regard the loan as an unacceptable investment or cause the loan to become delinquent, or adversely affect the value or marketability of the loan. Broker Agreement § 8(h).

Broker has complied with all terms, conditions, and requirements of Lender's Guidelines and this Agreement, and with Applicable Law relating to the loan application process. . . . Broker Agreement § 8(k).

22. Defendant Mortgage Direct represented and/or warranted that it had the ability to perform its obligations under, and satisfy all requirements of, the Broker Agreement.

23. Defendant Mortgage Direct agreed to indemnify LBHI (as, among other things, LBB's assignee) from liabilities, claims, judgments, losses and expenses it might sustain as a result of the Defective Loans, including attorneys' fees. Section 9 of the Broker Agreement, entitled "Indemnification," provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

In addition to Lender's rights and remedies under Applicable Law (whether arising at law or in equity), Broker shall indemnify and hold Lender, its successors and assigns, and their respective officers, directors, employees, shareholders, members, agents, contractors, affiliates and subsidiaries (collectively, the "Lender Indemnitees") harmless from and against, and shall reimburse Lender Indemnitees with respect to, any and all claims, demands, losses, damages, interest, penalties, fines, forfeitures, judgments and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel, and court costs) (any of the foregoing hereinafter referred to as a “Claim”), resulting from, relating to or arising out of, whether the result of negligent or intentional conduct or otherwise: (i) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Broker pursuant to this Agreement or Lender’s Guidelines: (ii) any breach or failure to perform any covenant or obligation of Broker in this Agreement or Lender’s Guidelines. . . .

24. The Broker Agreement also provides for the “prevailing party” to recover attorneys’ fees incurred to enforce the Broker Agreement. Section 18 of the Broker Agreement, entitled “Attorneys’ Fees,” provides as follows:

If any action or proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement, or because of an alleged dispute, breach, default, or misrepresentation in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys’ fees and other costs incurred in that action or proceeding, in addition to any other relief to which it or they may be entitled.

C. LBHI’s Settlement with RMBS Trustees

25. When LBB acquired loans from Defendant Mortgage Direct and others, it typically did not permanently hold those loans on its books. The loans it acquired from Defendant Mortgage Direct and other entities, including Defective Loans, were sold to LBHI, and then packaged for securitization.

26. In connection with such securitizations, LBHI relied on information that Defendant Mortgage Direct provided to LBB, and it made representations and warranties to the securitization trusts, based in part, on the representations Defendant Mortgage Direct made to LBB.

27. The agreements governing the securitizations provide that the applicable RMBS Trustee may seek contractually defined repurchases of loans in the event certain breaches of representations and warranties occurred.

28. Eventually, the RMBS Trustees discovered breaches of representations, warranties and/or covenants in the Defective Loans.

29. The RMBS Trustees filed claims to recover for losses on the Defective Loans and other loans sold to LBB.

30. Many of the loans at issue in the claims, including the loans in Exhibit B, were alleged to contain defects which caused LBHI to incur losses, judgments, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, and liability to the RMBS Trustees.

31. LBHI was forced to defend against such allegations and eventually settle with the RMBS Trustees.

32. LBHI entered into a settlement agreement with the RMBS Trustees, under which it agreed to seek an estimation of the liability underlying the claims in a proceeding before the Bankruptcy Court (the "Estimation Proceeding"). In that Estimation Proceeding, the RMBS Trustees sought damages of over $11.4 billion in damages based upon losses flowing from the at-issue loans. After the conclusion of the lengthy and highly-contested Estimation Proceeding, for which LBHI provided notice of that proceeding to Defendants, the Court entered the RMBS Order allowing a claim in favor of the RMBS Trustees. LBHI also settled several other RMBS Trustee claims in the course of business of its bankruptcy case as permitted by the Plan.³

33. LBHI incurred liability, expenses, costs, losses, judgments, and attorneys' fees to the RMBS Trustees as a result of defects, including, but not limited to, defects concerning the quality and characteristics of the loans, the creditworthiness of the borrowers, the characteristics of the collateral, the intended and actual occupancy status of the properties, compliance with appraisal standards and lending regulations, application of underwriting guidelines and the collection and review of the loan application and supporting documentation, and documentation deficiencies.

34. LBHI made representations, warranties, obligations and/or covenants to the RMBS Trustees that were coextensive with those made by Defendant Mortgage Direct, and LBHI incurred liability to the RMBS Trustees as a result of Defendant Mortgage Direct's acts, failures, omissions, and breaches of its representations, warranties, obligations, and/or covenants.

D. Defendant Mortgage Direct's Obligation to Indemnify LBHI

35. Defendant Mortgage Direct agreed to indemnify LBHI (as, among other things, LBB's assignee) from liabilities, claims, judgments, losses, attorneys' fees and expenses it might sustain as a result of the Defective Loans. Broker Agreement § 9.

36. Pursuant to the Agreements, the laws of the State of New York govern this action.

37. All conditions precedent to bringing this action have been met, occurred or have been waived.

E. Defendant BBMC and Defendant Synergy's Liability for Seller's Obligations

38. In 2012, Defendant BBMC acquired Seller's business, including substantially all of its assets used in or necessary for the operation of the Seller's business (the "Mortgage Direct Acquisition"). Defendant BBMC is a subsidiary of Bridgeview Bank, an FDIC bank with over $1.5 billion in assets based in Chicago, Illinois.

39. Following the Mortgage Direct Acquisition, Seller's employees, offices, phone lines, websites and other requirements for doing business, along with its business operations, were transferred to Defendant BBMC.

40. Seller's assets and business operations were transferred to Defendant BBMC.

41. As part of the Mortgage Direct Acquisition, Defendant BBMC assumed liabilities that were ordinarily necessary for the continuation of Seller's business operation.

42. Defendant BBMC continued Seller's enterprise, management, personnel, assets, branch locations, equipment, and general business operations.

43. Defendant BBMC required continued employment of many of Seller's employees and management as a condition of the Mortgage Direct Acquisition in order to continue the business operations of Seller immediately after the Mortgage Direct Acquisition.

44. Prior to the Mortgage Direct Acquisition, Gus Daleh ("Daleh") was the President and Chief Executive Officer of Seller. After the Mortgage Direct Acquisition, Daleh became the Regional Vice President of Defendant BBMC.

45. The Mortgage Direct Acquisition was structured to disadvantage creditors such as LBHI, including inadequate cash consideration given for Seller's business, leaving Seller unable to satisfy its obligations to creditors, such as LBHI.

46. Under one or more theories of successor liability, Defendant BBMC is responsible for Seller's indemnification obligations to LBHI.

47. In 2018, Defendant Synergy acquired Defendant BBMC (the "BBMC Acquisition").

48. In a press release, dated November 1, 2018, Defendant Synergy announced:

Synergy One Lending, a San Diego-based subsidiary of Mutual of Omaha Bank, has acquired BBMC Mortgage, a national mortgage company based in Lombard, Illinois. BBMC is a division of Bridgeview Bank and offers a range of products including traditional and reverse mortgages through a network of loan officers and direct sales channels. In addition to acquiring select assets and releases, Synergy One expects to transition most BBMC employees to the company.

"BBMC has built an impressive team and we are a strong cultural fit, with both teams committed to a relentless drive towards an exceptional customer experience through the combination of talent, technology, and digital marketing expertise," said Synergy One CEO Terry Connealy.

“Synergy One and Mutual of Omaha Bank put their customers first, which aligns closely with BBMC’s culture and commitment to honesty, fair dealing and superior customer service,” added Jeff Gennarelli, President of BBMC Mortgage. “I’m confident this will be an excellent fit for our mortgage customers and employees.”

49. Following the BBMC Acquisition, Defendant BBMC’s employees, offices, phone lines, websites and other requirements for doing business, along with its business operations, were transferred to Defendant Synergy.

50. Defendant BBMC’s assets and business operations were transferred to Defendant Synergy.

51. As part of the BBMC Acquisition, Defendant Synergy assumed liabilities that were ordinarily necessary for the continuation of Defendant BBMC’s business operations.

52. Defendant Synergy continued Defendant BBMC’s enterprise, management, personnel, assets, branch locations, equipment, and general business operations.

53. Defendant Synergy required continued employment of many of Defendant BBMC’s employees and management as a condition of the BBMC Acquisition in order to continue the business operations of Defendant BBMC immediately after the BBMC Acquisition.

54. The BBMC Acquisition was structured to disadvantage creditors such as LBHI, including inadequate cash consideration given for Seller’s business, leaving Seller unable to satisfy its obligations to creditors, such as LBHI.

55. Under one or more theories of successor liability, Defendant Synergy is responsible for Seller’s indemnification obligations to LBHI.

F. Allocation of Damages to Defendants

56. Defendants are responsible for their allocated share of the liability, expenses, costs, losses, judgments, and attorneys’ fees incurred by LBHI to the RMBS Trustees as a result of loan defects including, but not limited to, defects concerning the quality and characteristics of the loans, the creditworthiness of the borrowers, the characteristics of the collateral, the intended and actual occupancy status of the properties, compliance with appraisal standards and lending regulations, application of underwriting guidelines and the collection and review of the loan application and supporting documentation, and documentation deficiencies.

57. With respect to the liability itself (excluding costs and fees), Defendants are liable for a portion of the $2.38 billion liability the Court fixed in 2018, not gross loan-level losses, allocated based on those loans that drove the liability fixed by the Court.

58. For these loans, the allocation is based on the four principal types of misrepresentation breaches (income, employment, occupancy and debt) that underlie the Court's $2.38 billion RMBS judgment in the Estimation Proceeding. To ensure that its allocation ties to only the strongest breach claims, LBHI excludes from that group loans that (i) performed for over three years following origination, (ii) had breaches supported only by evidence that LBHI considers less reliable, or supported by insufficient evidence, including insufficient servicing records, and therefore failed to meet the burden of proof necessary to establish a breach, and (iii) were included in LBHI's RMBS claims solely based on missing "Documentation," because the Court attributed no liability to those types of claims.

59. Applying the criteria described above to LBHI's entire population of RMBS loans, including loans originated and brokered by entities not at issue in any current or past litigation, yields an aggregate liability of roughly $4.0 billion. This represents a discount of approximately 65% from the aggregate gross loan-level losses asserted by the RMBS Trustees. A further discount factor of approximately 41% of $4.0 billion brings that amount into line with the Court's $2.38 billion award and ensures that LBHI cannot collect more from the defendants, in the aggregate, than their allocable share of that amount.

60. In allocating that amount, LBHI applies this discount with certain immaterial adjustments in two circumstances: (i) in the RMBS settlement process, the RMBS Trustees sought approval from certificate holders in covered private label RMBS securitizations, but investors in one trust (SASCO 2006-4) opted out of the settlement, negotiated their claims separately, and ultimately reached a settlement that gave them an allowed claim of $70 million, or roughly twice what the trust would have received under the estimation settlement; and (ii) during the period between the RMBS settlement and the estimation hearing, several RMBS trusts collapsed and were granted allowed claims based upon a pro rata share of the initial $2.44 billion settlement in principal with certain institutional investors.

61. As it concerns Defendants specifically, Exhibit B attached hereto identifies each of the at-issue loans in connection with the RMBS Order, provides a non-exclusive list of the defects alleged by the RMBS Trustees on those loans, and sets forth Defendant's allocated indemnification liability (excluding costs and fees). A general description of the defects identified in Exhibit B is included in Exhibit C attached hereto.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Contractual Indemnification)

62. LBHI hereby incorporates by reference the allegations set forth above as though fully set forth herein.

63. The Broker Agreements are valid and enforceable contracts that are binding upon Defendants.

64. LBHI and/or LBB has substantially performed all of their obligations under the Broker Agreements.

65. Defendants owe LBHI indemnity for its liabilities, losses, claims, attorneys' fees, judgments and any other costs, fees and expenses as to the Defective Loans.

66. Defendant Mortgage Direct's breaches of the Broker Agreements and other acts and/or omissions as to the Defective Loans resulted in LBHI incurring a judgment, liability, and/or losses in an amount to be determined at trial, plus prejudgment interest pursuant to New York law, attorneys' fees, litigation costs, and all other fees and costs provided by the Broker Agreements.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, LBHI respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment in its favor and against Defendants:

- a) For all damages arising from or relating to the obligations of Defendants under the indemnification provisions of the Agreements, in an amount to be determined at trial;
- b) For recoverable interest;
- c) For the costs and expenses incurred by LBHI in enforcing the obligations of Defendants under the Agreements, including attorneys' fees and costs and any expert witness fees incurred in litigation; and
- d) Providing for such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
